GETAWAY DAY IN KENTUCKY

RUNNING OF TODAY'S LATONIA CARD WILL BRING CIRCUIT TO A CLOSE.

Much Interest Manifested in Latonia Endurance Stakes, Which Promises Great Contest-Latonia Meeting Fairly Successful.

Cincinnati, O., November 10.—Mild weather and a good card contributed to attract a big attendance this afternoon at Latonia. The crowd witnessed line sport and as most of the favorites were returned winners, they combined profit with pleasure. Meridian took the feature race, a handicap at three-quarters, in which he was conceding big weight to good opposition. Grover Hughes, running the best race of his career, nanaged to land second piace, with Follie Levy third. The success of the backers of favorites began in the opening race, when Nan Ferguson, under T. Koerner's energetic handing, managed to get up to beat Maynora. Brig. continuing in her good form, accounted for the second race after a hard effort to outstay Colonel Holloway. The latter was best, but loss of ground on the first turn, where he was forced wide, proved his undoing. A plunge on J. F. Crowley in the third race was responsible for liberal odds about Jeanne d'Arc and others. Jeanne d'Arc woon handily with the good thing a distant trailer. Mockler ran in his best form and came away to an easy victory in the fifth over Haldeman and Sam Barber, with Tay Fay far back. The latter probably has had too much severe campaigning lately. The closing race went to Console, for which there was abundant support.

much severe campaigning latery. The closing race-went to Console, for which there was abundant support.

Start Cassidy suspended jockey C. Turner for disobedience at the post and that rider will not be allowed to fill his engagements tomorrow.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the outcome of the Latonia Endurance Stakes to be run tomorrow. A splendid field is carded to start and with good weather, a record-breaking attendance is expected to witness the result. Governor Gray enjoys favoritism with the horsemen. Some shrewd bosesmen incline to the idea that the race will be belowen the three-year-olds entered and that the belowen the three-year-olds entered and that the boutcome will probably be a repetition of the Latonia Derby, with Governor Gray leading. Star Charter second and Messenger Boy third. The latter has been given a careful preparation for the race and is in better fettle than for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, in which he triumphed. A victory tomorrow would stamp him as one of the best long-distance racers in the country.

Jockey E. Dugan has been prevailed on to remain over and will have the mount on Governor Gray.

J. B. Campbell has been engaged by F. J. Pons to look after the stake entries for the Charleston track and will leave next Sunday for Norfolk and Marlboro to do some missionary work among the horsemen in the interest of the Charleston Association.

Charles Nolte, who for the past few seasons leas

Charles Noite, who for the past few seasons has been assistant superintendent at the Douglas Park track, has been ofered the position of track superintendent at the Charleston track.

Eugene Eirod has completed all arrangements in connection with the special train for Juarez and the big consignment will pull out from Latonia Monday afternoon. If the running schedule is adhered to, passengers and horses will be landed at El Paso Thursday forenoon.

Henry McDaniel will add twelve yearlings to his consignment for Juarez. The youngstors will be picked up at Louisville and put aboard the Juarez special.

consignment for Juarez. The youngstors will be picked up at Louisville and put aboard the Juarez special.

The Gerst-Holie consignment for Havana will number eight, including Donau.

G. M. Johnson will send five horses to Havana, including Raleigh P. D.

T. C. McDowell will send his horses from here to Lexington and afterwards they wil be shipped to Havana. The Manager will go with the lot.

According to authoritative information, the Lateila association probably will book a small profit on this meeting. The unpropritious weather that has prevailed during most of the meeting is responsible or sling gate receipts. The betting, however, held up well, a sure indication that the Cincinnatians are beginning to take kindly to the mutuels. The auction pool betting has not been missed to any extent and this mode of wagering has probably ceased in kentucky for all time. The long-priced winning combinations has made this style of betting popular with the smaller bettors. Today's three-horse combination brought successful backers $102.60 for $2. Starter Cassidy leaves tomorrow for New York. Where he will spend a week before going to Juarez. C. A. Tilles, who is the chief stockholder in the track and who has been here several days, will return to St. Louis tomorrow. Mr. Tilles is well satisfied with conditions here and with the efficient management of the track by John Hachmeister. The latter will, at the close of the racing, remain to wind up affairs and later will go south for a much heeded rest before planning for next season.

The following horses belonging to T. W. Flynn and others were sold in the paddock at Latonia to-day:

TURF GOVERNORS IN A DELEMMA.

New York, November 10.—"The racing interests are in a bad fix," said a steward of the Jockey Club at Belmont Park Terminal on election day. "They do not know what policy to pursue. If we try to show good cause why we should have relief our enemies will not listen to us. In my opinion the Legislature could have passed both of Senator Gittens' bills last spring without exciting even a mild protest and racing could have been revived on a small scale. We know there is open betting on other branches of sport without the slightest obsolution from the element that has put racing out of business, but we do not care to instigate action by antagonizing other sport promoters. I believe that if racing could be made an issue with the voters of Greater New York it would be made clear that is something over which we have no control. Just at present the racing interests are marking time, waiting for favorable developments, but we have no idea when we will be in a position to make a move calculated to relieve the embarrassment of the turf in this state."

H. A. Buck announced yesterday that for the first time on record the United Hauts Racing Association's rall meeting of two days had been run without less. In fact, the books showed a small profit. The meeting of the Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association of election day resulted in enough patronage to cover expenses. It has been suggested that the number of amateur race meetings in this vicinity should be materially increased next year.

BEAUCOUP AGAIN DISAPPOINTS.

Wilson Horse Fails to Run Up to Expectations in Race at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., November 10.—With the breaking up of the storm that has been hanging over Norfolk during the past few days and the return of pleasant weather came a decided increase in the attendance at the Jamestown Jockey Club's course this afternoon. The crowd was a large one and the sixteen layers were kept busy attending to their wants. Mud runners again had a chance, as the going was still deep and heavy, although the bottom was in fairly good shape. The public had a good line on the mud-running abilities of those carded, with the result that all six of the winners found strong support.

tairly good shape. The public had a good line on the mud-running abilities of those carded, with the result that all six of the winners found strong support.

The disappointment of the afternoon was the defeat of the unreliable Beaucoup, which was made favorite in the fifth race. At best this Wilson horse is a bad betting proposition. He runs best when least expected and vice versa. In today's race trainer Tom Healey substituted the apprentice rider Diggins for McCahey. Mr. Healey has the impression that Beaucoup runs better when placed. McCahey attempted to take him back the other day, but the horse was so full of speed that he refrained from choking him in his effort to reserve him. Some blamed McCahey for Beaucoup's defeat, saying that the horse would have won had be come from behind. Diggins permitted him to drop back today, but when called on. Beaucoup failed to respond and made an inglorious showing, which would seem to indicate that he is a horse of moods.

Onager made amends for Beaucoup's disappointment by beating a shifty lot in the fourth race, a dash of six furlongs. He was well backed and went to the post an odds-son favorite. McCahey sent him right to the front when the barrier was released and at no time during the running was the result in doubt. At the finish Onager led Kermak by a couple of lengths.

In the steeplechase the favorite, Sam Ball, bled after they had gone one turn of the field, and this in a measure was responsible for his defeat. Dr. Heacd, the winner, outjumped and outran him from the start, and it is doubtful ff Sam Ball could have beaten him, even if he had not had the hemorrhage. The latter rapped several of his feaces with great force and almost fell in front of the grandstand, Fred W. Gerhardy, who will act as racing secretary of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association, reports having received a number of applications for stalls from horsemen racing here. Entries to the twenty stakes to be run during the meeting at Charleston will equal in point of importance those held

MEXICANS TAKE KINDLY TO RACING.

Indications Multiply That Sport Is Destined to Become Immensely Popular.

Indications Multiply That Sport Is Destined to Become Immensely Popular.

Mexico City, Mex., November 4.—Charming weath er called out a good attendance for the third day of the Mexican Jockey Club's race meeting today, and the crowd bet enthusiastically on their favorites. Mexican folks are taking to racing guite naturally and easily, and their comprehension of the intricacies of the sport becomes broader daily. Although racing is comparatively a new thing here, it bids fair to become immensely popular in the near future.

Today was a red letter period in the career of trainer John Lowe, as three of the thoroughbreds which he is training scored in the second, third and fourth races. J. H. Meade's good horse Chapultepec, ridden by Mountain, won the second race. Henderson & Hogan's golding Henry Walbank captured the third, and Mr. Lowe's own mare Sona took the money in the fourth.

Three favorites won first money today, Chapultepec, Henry Walbank and Sr. Alexandre de la Arena's Derby candidate Marques de San Roman, which took second money in the Criterion Stakes last Wednesday. Betting was especially brisk on the race won by Sr. de la Arena's colt.

The surprise of the day was the victory in the last race of W. G. Yanke's Lackrose over J. H. Meade's John Louis, another of trainer John Lowe's charges that went to the post a hot favorite. Lackrose well up from the start, and although tiring near the end, managed to maintain his advantage down the stretch and won by a haif length.

One striking feature of the meeting is the use of the old-fashtoned bookmakers' stauds, which are located in the open on the lawn near the north end of the grandstand, which make it convenient for remails patrons of the sport to stroll down, take a look at the odds, and then, with some knowledge of the prices, put down their wagers through the agency of their escorts. As in all Latin-American countries, there is not the same stigma attached to the patrons of the sport to stroll down, take a look at the odds, and onnected himself with gent

THINKS WELL OF WESTERN PROSPECTS.

Phil Reilly, who is efficially connected in the capacity of clerk of the scales with various meetings in the northwest, passed through Chicago yesterday enroute from Kentucky, where he has been studying the operation of the pari-mutuels, to his home at St. Paul, Minn., for a brief visit before returning to British Columbia. Mr. Reilly is an enthusiastic adherent of the pari-mutuel method of wagering and products a great expansion of racing in British Columbia under that system. He says that it is the aim of the directors of the sport in that far western province to adopt the most up-to-date methods that investigation throughout the world may show to be available for the improvement of the pari-mutuel in large numbers. The track was again heavy for

Went to post at 3:42. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving. ONAGER sprinted away from his opponents in the first furlong and won all the way, never extended. KORMAK began slowly, but worked his way up on the inside steadily and finished gamely. BABBLER stambled soon after the start and droppe back, but finished fairly well. TOUCH ME showed early speed, but tired and probably was short. CANDIDATE ran poorly in the going.

system with the idea of still further increasing its popularity. The substitution of the pari-mutuels for the bookmaker in British Columbia, he declares, has eliminated virtually all the local opposition to the sport that was manifested at one time. The associations whose meetings are conducted at Minoru Park, a model course at Vancouver, are planning to reduce the commission of 10 per cent which was deducted from the mutuel takings the past season and have reached an understanding with the management of the new track at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, by which a schedule of dates will be arranged so as to avoid conflict in the meetings of the various associations interested. These associations, it is understood, have under consideration a proposition for the organization of a new governing body to be known as the North Pacific Jockey Ciub. Heretofore they have raced under the jurisaliction of the Pacific Jockey Club. Next year it is probable that the minimum purse offering on the British Columbia tracks will be $300, which represents a substantial increase.

the races today, due to more rain having fallen last night, but there were few withdrawals and the fields averaged well in respect to size. Form students fared better today than in the last few days, as three favorites and a second choice were among the winners. W. B. Carson took two purses with Tippy and Quality Street, both of which were favorites. This is the second time this week he has accomplished such a feat. His rider, Hopkins, was also again conspicuous, as he not only piloted Tippy and Quality Street, but he also won with Joe Rose.

Blanche Frances was the longest price winner of the day. She just got up in time to win the opening race by a nose at 10 to 1.

The conditions for the races that will be decided next week were made public today. There will be from five to nine races each day.

Winner—B. f. by Orlando—Vassari (trained by J. Lowe).

Start bad. Won cantering; second and third driving. SONA soon ran into the lead and, drawing far away, won in a canter. GALLIOTA ran in forward contention throughout and easily disposed of KUROPATKIN in the last furlong for second place. KUROPATKIN made a game challenge when an eighth out, but tired in the last susteenth. CELLARET finished well. IDA BARBADOES showed the most early speed, but tired and, being big and high, the race should do her good.
